

Joining Letter

Dear Anhad Mahajan,

Congratulations!

We are delighted to congratulate you on your selection as an Intern for Indiema for the tenure of 3 Months and shall commence on 3rd April. Your exceptional creativity, vision, and unwavering commitment to community engagement have earned you this exciting position, and we are thrilled to welcome you to the Indiema family.

As a Intern, you will be instrumental in embodying and promoting the spirit of Indiema. Your role will be crucial in representing our identity, fostering a vibrant anime-loving community, and contributing to the growth of our brand across different platforms and regions. Your voice and vision will help amplify our reach, create meaningful interactions, and strengthen the bond between the brand and its audience.

We are confident that your unique ability to connect with people, coupled with your passion for anime culture and innovation, will help Indiema thrive and stand out in the world of anime merchandise. Your involvement will not only shape the way our audience experiences the brand but will also provide you with valuable exposure and leadership opportunities.

We look forward to your active collaboration and are excited to see the creativity and enthusiasm you bring to this journey. Together, we will build something truly extraordinary for anime fans everywhere.

Warm regards,
Kalash Jha
